Patient & Family Centered Care

October 5-9 is Patient and Family Centered Care week at the TBCC, and this year's feature practice is Storytelling. The department of Engagement and Patient Experience and partners will be presenting several webinars and Telehealth sessions, and all AHS staff, physicians, patients and families are welcome to attend. Please visit the Engagement & Patient Engagement PFCC Week Webpage for event registration and more!

Hand Hygiene Compliance

The TBCC front-line staff are washing their hands! In 2013/14 the TBCC had a 40% compliance rate with the Hand Hygiene 4 Moments. This current 2015/16 fiscal year we are averaging a strong compliance rate of 80%. Keep up the great work!

Calling all Christmas Performers!

We are looking for volunteers to bring some holiday cheer at the TBCC Christmas Tea. If you are interested in sharing your talents on Dec 4th, please contact Kellie McKeil for more information.

TBCC Golf Classic

On September 10th, the Alberta Cancer Foundation celebrated the 24th Annual Tom Baker Cancer Centre Golf Classic in memory of Fred C. Coles. Thanks to you, over $300K was raised with all proceeds being invested into the world-class Alberta Cancer Research Biorepository.

Special thanks to all TBCC staff who volunteered at this event. We look forward to 2016!

“Take time to appreciate your employees, and they will reciprocate in a thousand ways.” – Bob Nelson
